Bridgford Park and Nottingham City Centre.

Notes:

No memory of the trip at all but a very excited post on Facebook referencing the squirrel. Rahel and Joseph bought me a new tripod for my birthday and one of the legs functions as a detachable monopod.

The joys of using a monopod. Try downloading the original. Amazing. Well I'm amazed at just 1/250 of a second. Sheesh and me all of a tremble.
