Subject:

Little boy paddling.

Notes:

This I think is the old paddling pool by the Trent before it was renovated in the 1980s. I was convinced that it was Royston as the main subject of the picture but when blown up it looks more like me. If a 4 year old Royston then it would be 1960, if it's me then 1956. The print to me looks like a 60s product and I think I wore a knitted cossie at that age rather than trunks. 1960 fits with the weather too as it was the hottest June since 1947. In June, me and Mary would be at school during the week, so Mum taking Roy to the pool on a hot June day? I would put a couple of quid on it.
