Subject:

Colwick Woods and Sneinton

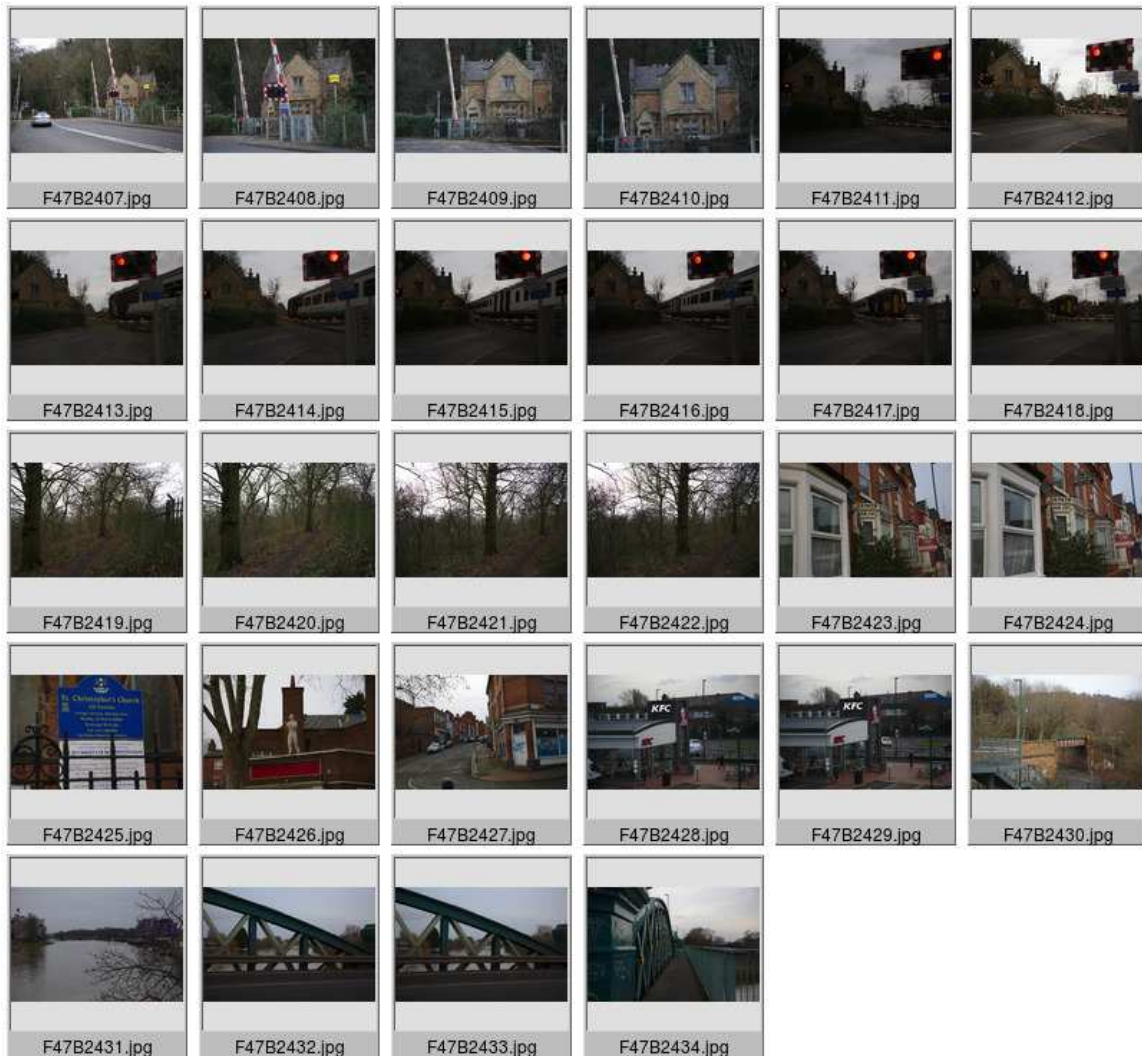

Notes:

During the irrational Covid-19 national lockdown. Took a walk along Sneinton Greenway, cantered round Rough Hill and Colwick Woods, then back through Sneinton.

I didn't think I'd ever been to Colwick Wood, wasn't confident that it existed independently of Colwick Park but as I struggled up the wet muddy hill it suddenly felt familiar, as if an old black and white reel was running in my head. Then through the hiss and crackle I heard my Dad's voice, just saying the words "Colwick Woods". Not anything about Colwick Woods, just the words "Colwick Woods". Perhaps I'd asked him "Where are we Dad?" or "Where are we going Dad?" I don't know. I wasn't in the film. My Mum was though and my Dad's voice and Colwick Woods.
