Subject:

Squirrels and last day of Summer.

Notes:

I have tried moving the squirrel resistant bird feeder further from the holly bush, the squirrels after some early struggles have mastered it however.

A glorious couple of days culminating in a blazing last day of summer in the afternoon of which I dragged Max on a walk to Radcliffe via Holme Pierrepont. Some beautiful shimmering trees on the way to the ever excellent Chestnut and a magnificent selection of beers only one of which was of dish water provenance.

An excellent fish and chip deal, marred by cold, over prepped mushy peas. The pub quickly redressed the problem however leaving me with the complaint only at the outrageous £4.20 charged for lemonade.
