Subject:

Small 70th Birthday Gathering

Notes:

I was only looking for a few chums to join me on my 70th birthday but the low turnout was rather disappointing. Notable absences were the Riley clan, Mick and Sue, Shaun Beer (who was quite keen before Christmas), Laura and possibly Maggie too. Still Joseph was there for the first time and that more than made up for everyone else. Rahel didn't make it, she had gone to Alfreton Road to get a cake, didn't get the taxi to wait and then for some incomprehensible reason was unable to arrange another taxi.

It was terrific that Jude and Trevor made the effort to come from Burton Joyce and that Tansin and Richard came too.

Unfortunately I took the pictures relatively late in the evening and omitted to snap Trevor or Neil who were also there.
